

Mr. Patrick Wales

Project Manager, Virginia Uranium, Inc.

April 19, 2012 - Rt. 64 Comfort Inn Monticello, Charlottesville, VA at 5:30 PM

Rocks to Reactors: Past, Present, and Future of the Coles Hill Uranium Deposit

The presentation will cover the history of the uranium discovery, the technical and political development of the project over the past 30 years, and then describe the recently completed studies, the recent action by Governor McDonnell and any updates on the work currently being undertaken by the Uranium Working Group

Speaker's Biography:

Patrick M. Wales has over five years of experience in the field of environmental and exploration geology. He is a geologist and the project manager for Virginia Uranium, Inc. Prior to his work at Virginia Uranium, Wales served as Manager of Environmental Services for an engineering firm in Danville, Virginia. A native of Danville, Virginia, Wales holds a Bachelor of Science Degree in Geology from Radford University (cum laude) and a Master of Science Degree in Geology from the University of Mississippi. He is an Executive Committee member of the Virginia Section of the American Nuclear Society, is active in the North American Young Generation in Nuclear, and represents the Nuclear Energy Institute as a speaker for the Clean Energy America speakers bureau.

Schedule:

- Social Hour - 5:30 p.m.
- Dinner - 6:15 p.m.
- Presentation - 7:00 p.m.
- Adjourn - 8:00 p.m..
- Directions to the Rt 64 Comfort Inn Monticello - (434) 977-3300
- The Comfort Inn is offering a special room rate of $80 if you'd prefer to have a break in your travels.

COST: ~$30 ($20 for students) includes dinner.

Reservations for the meeting have been closed on Monday, April 16, 2012. Please address any questions to Reed Johnson by email at wrjohnson@kaballero.com (ANS) or by phone at 804-462-7409. See you perhaps at the next meeting in May.